Part of The Shepherds Voice Series The Shepherds Voice Series brings you the current teaching of Bishops and Cardinals on vital topics facing the Catholic Church today. The issue of immigration in the U.S. today is critical and urgent, but frequently clouded over by issues such as economic pressures, the fear of the unknown and family issues. Bishop Nicholas DiMarzio wades into the immigration debate with a no-nonsense approach to the crucial questions facing the U.S. today. Founded on the teachings of the Catholic Church, Bishop DiMarzio continually points to the dignity of the human person as the unfailing guide to addressing the pressing issues that surround immigration.

About the Author Bishop Nicholas DiMarzio, received his Ph.D. in Social Work Research and Policy from Rutgers University, was ordained a priest in 1970 and a bishop in 1996. He served as executive director of the USCCB Migration and Refugee Services and as Chairman of the U.S. Bishops' Conference Migration Committee, the USCCB Domestic Policy Committee and the Catholic Legal Immigration Network, Inc. A member of the Pontifical Council for the Pastoral Care of Migrants and the Itinerant, Most Reverend DiMarzio has been Bishop of Brooklyn since 2003.
