Emmeline Blanche Wells : Charities and Philanthropies: Woman's Work in Utah (Classic Reprint) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Charities and Philanthropies: Woman's Work in Utah (Classic Reprint):

Excerpt from Charities and Philanthropies: Woman's Work in Utah That the book may reach many who know little of this comparatively new country, and enlighten them in regard to woman's organized work for the needy and unfortunate of all classes, and in all conditions, the writer ardently hopes and desires; that much good Will result from comparing plans and methods, when a complete work shall be compiled, for the betterment of those needing aid and assistance, there can be little doubt.
