Jamsheed Choksy : Conflict and Cooperation: Zoroastrian Subalterns and Muslim Elites in Medieval Iranian Society before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Conflict and Cooperation: Zoroastrian Subalterns and Muslim Elites in Medieval Iranian Society:

This text explores the consequences of the meeting in medieval Iran of two important religious communities - Zoroastrians and Muslims. It examines patterns of communal behaviour during the seventh to thirteenth centuries AD and suggest how both groups were radically transformed, ultimately reshaping the culture and society of the Middle East and central Asia. The spread of Islam, and the success of Muslim institutions, and the gradual decline of Zoroastrianism are viewed in the light of politics, religion and economics.
