From Palgrave Macmillan : Culture, Health, and Religion at the Millennium: Sweden Unparadised before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Culture, Health, and Religion at the Millennium: Sweden Unparadised:

The book presents interpretations of culture, health, politics, and religion in Sweden today, Sweden transforms from the well-functioning but existentially bland economic wonder to a more fragmented and gloomy society. Contributors include scholars from film studies, literary studies, political science, religious studies and theology

"This fascinating and unusual book presents to the English-language reader a complex image of Sweden as a country in the process of change. Employing a highly interdisciplinary approach in film, popular literature politics, and religion, the writers, all from the University of Gothenburg, challenge stereotypes and idealizing images, crawling under the skin of contemporary Sweden and its place in the world." - David Jasper, Professor, University of Glasgow, UK and Renmin University of China, China From the Back Cover About the Author Henrik Bogdan, University of Gothenburg, Sweden Daniel Brodn, University of Gothenburg, Sweden Andreas Johansson Hein, University of Gothenburg, Sweden
