Islam (and the best for describing how women ...By JohnTruthExposes and describes the DEMEANING, DEGRADING, DEGENERATE, and DEADLY consequences of Islam, Sharia, and religiously-sanctioned polygamy on women. Since women are the MOTHERS of men, Darwish describes how downtrodden Muslim women produce defective, negative men who blame everyone else for their own failures. Having studied Islam for 30 years I rate this book the 3rd best on Islam (and the best for describing how women are treated in Islam), after Ibn Warraq's WHY I AM NOT A MUSLIM and Mark A. Gabriel's ISLAM AND TERRORISM.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. It's Quite an EducationBy Music MomThis book is quite an education concerning Islam. The Arabic culture is very different from that of the Unites States and other countries and we would all do well to read about it and understand. Ms. Darwish is from Egypt and was raised a Muslim. I admire her for having the strength and courage to tell her fascinating story. You will probably be surprised at how much you really don't know if you have not studied Islam very much. I also recommend a companion book, A God Who Hates, by Wafa Sultan, who is from Syria.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. If ever I recommend a book, this is it.By CustomerIf ever there was a book that I would recommend, it would be this one. All Americans: white, mexican, Jew, Canadians, Israeli, Britains, all legal immigrants and especially our government officials. If we sit by and do nothing knowing this is happening, we will lose America. What a crime for us to believe that "radical" Isis is to be taken at their word.

A political and personal odyssey from hatred to love When Nonie Darwish was a girl of eight, her father died while leading covert attacks on Israel. A high-ranking Egyptian military officer stationed with his family in Gaza, he was considered a shahid,a martyr for jihad. Yet at an early age, Darwish developed a skeptical eye about her own Muslim culture and upbringing. Why the love of violence and hatred of Jews and Christians? Why the tolerance of glaring social injustices? Why blame America and Israel for everything? Today Darwish thrives as an American citizen, a Christian, a conservative Republican, and an advocate for Israel. To many, she is now an infidel. But she is risking her comfort and her safety to reveal the many politically incorrect truths about Muslim culture that she knows firsthand.
