Ian Hislop : Private Eye Annual 2014 before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Private Eye Annual 2014:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Fun to read, especially for people who love that Brit sense of humor. By Mary Jean Mayer Very interesting and funny, but not as good as the regular issues. Maybe I should have sprung for the most recent version. LOL

The 2014 Private Eye Annual presents the year's best cartoons, jokes and spoofs from the UK's most successful satirical magazine. Illustrated in colour throughout with cartoons, sketches and photo-bubbles. Now in its 18th year the Private Eye Annual has become both a collector's item and a perennial Christmas bestseller with sales in excess of 60,000 copies. The perfect secret Santa gift at under a tenner!

"The Eye has given me more consistent pleasure, pain and provocation than any other publication in my lifetime." - Michael Palin The Observer "...one of the funniest magazines in the world" - The Guardian "Laughter is the justification for Private Eye's existence. Sometimes it is produced by pure genius..." - Roy Hattersley, The Times
About the Author Private Eye is the UK's number one, best-selling news and current affairs magazine edited by Ian Hislop since 1986. The magazine has a fortnightly sale of over 224,000 copies and is read by in excess of 800,000 readers. Hislop has received the British Society of Magazine Editor's highest award, "The Editor's Editor" and in 2013 was voted 54th in the Guardian's top 100 most powerful media people. In addition to appearing on the BBC's "Have I Got News for You" since it started in the early nineties, Hislop has presented a long line of well-regarded documentaries. He also recently co-wrote with the Private Eye cartoonist Nick Newman "The Wipers Times", a BBC2 drama set in the trenches in the First World War.
