Worcester, October 21, 1864 (Classic Reprint):

Excerpt from Proceedings of the American Antiquarian Society, at the Annual Meeting, Held in Worcester, October 21, 1864 Remembering, with tender and grateful sensibility, the pleasant social intercourse and elegant hospitalities, which, in times past, they so frequently have enjoyed under his roof, and the graceful manners and amiable qualities of her who so cordially welcomed them there, they find, in the startling announcement of her sudden death, cause alike for their own sorrowing regrets, and the expression of their deepest condolence, under the overwhelming affliction, to their respected and beloved friend and associate, the honored President of the Society.
