From Racing Post Books : Racing Post Annual 2016 before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Racing Post Annual 2016:

Now in its fifth year, the Racing Post Annual is firmly established as the perfect Christmas gift for any horseracing fan. This exciting review of 2015 from the Racing Post, the nation's voice of horseracing, has 208 colour pages packed with the best stories of the racing year and is beautifully illustrated with stunning images by award-winning photographer Edward Whitaker and others. The Racing Post's top writers look back on the best of the Flat and jumps seasons; the big names both equine and human; the moments to treasure and unusual stories of the year; plus a look forward at the top prospects for 2016. With a glittering line-up, this large-format, magazine-style publication is a must for any horseracing fan to enjoy at the end of the racing year.

About the Author Nick Pulford is a Racing Post staff writer, and has edited several books including the best-selling Racing Post Cheltenham Festival Guide.
