book of myths rather than biography. For example, the naive and crude description of the sweat of the prophet Mohammad as an amazing sweet fragrance like the musk is a simpleton's way to convince people that the prophet Mohammad is real prophet form God. When reading this book I felt as if I am reading a fantasy fiction rather than a biography, and its style resemble Middle Ages description of miracles. Besides, the wrong spelling arabic words such as saying "ambyiaa" to mean prophets rather than "anbyiaa" and many other misspelling, this obviously reflects the incompetence of the author of the Arabic language. The book reminds me of a Mulla (turban religious man) preaching in rural areas where people are mainly illiterate and have no idea what Islam is, apart from being Muslim by heritage. There are accounts in the book claiming the intention of the Jews to kill prophet Mohammad when he was young traveling with his uncle to Syria, this obviously encourages naive muslims to dislike the Jews and encourages antisemitism. Having said that, it is good to publish such books to show that some preachers preach myths rather than the actual work of the prophet Mohammad.

In every era numerous authors have written books of various sizes on the seerah (life) of Nabi [PBUH]. This service is still continuing and an assortment of gems will continue to be discovered from this vast ocean. There is no doubt that this insignificant individual does not possess the expertise required for this field. However, time and again this idea had surfaced that something should be written on this sacred topic regardless of the result with the hope that it may be a means of my salvation in the hereafter. Thus, I undertook the task of compiling this small book by extracting different aspects from the various books authored on seerah. I have taken special care to ensure that the language is of an understandable and simple level. May Allah Ta'ala crown this effort with His acceptance and allow it to be beneficial for one and all. May it also be a means of my salvation in the hereafter. Hadhrat Moulana Siddeeq Ahmad Baandwi Saheb [R.A.]
