James Thrower : The Religious History of Central Asia from the Earliest Times to the Present Day (Studies in Asian Thought and Religion) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Religious History of Central Asia from the Earliest Times to the Present Day (Studies in Asian Thought and Religion):

This book by the late Dr. James Thrower is the first general survey of the religious history of Central Asia, both Muslim and non-Muslim. It covers the history of religion in Central or Inner Asia from pre-history to the aftermath of the fall of communism.

"When James Thrower died in 1999, he left an impressive body of work including the almost completed typescript of The Religious History of Central Asia. A scholar of Islam and Marxism as well as comparative religion, Thrower was admirably qualified to write his final book." - Dr. Malise Ruthven (PhD, Cambridge University and former colleague of Dr. James Thrower at the University of Aberdeen)"About the AuthorProfessor Thrower was Professor of the History of Religion at the University of Aberdeen from 1993 till his passing in 1999. His other published works include A Short History of Western Atheism (1971, reissued in 1999 by Prometheus Books), The Alternative Tradition: A Study of Unbelief in the Ancient World (1981), Marxist-Leninist 'Scientific Atheism' and the Study of Religion in the USSR (1983), Marxism-Leninism as the Civil Religion of Soviet Society - God's Commissar (1992) and Religion: The Classical Theories (1999).
