I really love this book and its an easy and informative read. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. An Awesome Book By Whitepolarwolf This book is a wonderful addition to any library. Even more so for all Pagan libraries. I love to learn and this explains the Craft and helps in spreading a greater understanding. 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. just like all religions By Bud Seedy All bs...just like all religions...you are your own god.

Unlike the broom-riding crones of popular folklore, witches are real and have existed on the fringes of society for centuries. This comprehensive illustrated guide shines a light on Wiccan practices from the 13th century through today. It provides rich historical detail, then adds a modern twist through the fascinating personal stories of today's witches who are keeping The Craft alive. There's a full account of the various types of Magick; background on the many Pagan holidays, gods and goddesses; and details on traditional spells and practices passed down through the generations. The subject is treated with respect, making this an invaluable guide for anyone seeking the truth behind the legends.

About the Author Jason Karl is a supernatural explorer and founder of Ghost Research Foundation International. He presented the first ever terrestrial television live ghost hunt on ITV, the controversial Diana; Spirit of a Princess for ABC in America and co-presented the first series of Most Haunted on Living TV. He regularly appears on television and radio and is the author of seven books including 21st Century Ghosts and Illustrated History of the Haunted World, both published by New Holland. For most of his life he has harboured a fascination with ghosts and the paranormal. Jason lives in a haunted Georgian country house near Lancaster in Lancashire.
